

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

I am concerned
because no one in the government seems to think this action
is inappropriate. If Sinclair were doing
this for anything
other than a politic
stunt they would give equal air time
to Kerry, even showing a program
such as Going Upriver. As an individual I can do nothing but send you
a letter of my concern and ask for you to step in and take action. You have it within your power to make sure
the media is responsible for its actions.

The FCC and government has
allowed the mass
consolidation of
stations, now it is your responsibility
to ensure they do
not abuse their power. It may not be a "popular"
decision to enforce the rules, but it is
to be non-partisan
and do the right thing.

Thank you, Carolyn
